4. ATV Raffle / Renfrew Fair Booth

Kathleen Rogers contacted Judy Dobec about renting a fair booth. We can get an 8 x 10 indoor space with security for $197.75 or an outdoor space for $169.50. A difference of $28.50 for a secure, climate controlled venue that we do not have to tear down every day. It was recommended that we take the indoor space so we do not need a tent or trailer to store the 4 wheeler every day. Volunteers will work longer shifts as they won't be dealing with extreme weather conditions.

Moved by Dave Bennett,

Seconded by Arnold Dickson

That the Expansion Fundraising Committee recommends to Recreation that we purchase an 8 x 10 indoor booth at the Renfrew Fair September 2014 for $197.75 to raffle our ATV and Quilt tickets. Carried

ATV RAFFLE TICKETS

2500 Tickets are being printed at Renfrew Printers; they will call when they are ready, Kathleen will distribute to Ralph Miller, Vern Barr and the office. Kathleen will ask Vern to have the ATV assembled for Canada Day.

8. OUTDOOR COUNTRY CONCERT –

Kathleen Rogers reported that she spoke with Steve St. Michael and Mill Music partnering with Horton Recreation to put on a fundraising concert in 2015. Steve is glad to help Horton in this endeavor and has help from Ruth Collins and Richard Collins. Ruth and Steve organized the Hearts for Hospice Fundraiser for and raised $24,000 in one night. Kathleen will contact Steve to set up a first meeting date. Bob Kingsbury said that we would put a subcommittee together at the next Recreation Meeting May 21, 2014.

9. SUMMER ATHLETIC BANQUET

Arnold Dickson is working on contacting Mark Papousek and needs a contact Number. Dave Bennett said he could assist Arnold with that.

10. BENEFIT DANCE FOR HORTON VOLUNTEER

Val Miller asked if we could waive the fee for a benefit Dance for long time Horton Volunteer Heather Pickard. She spearheaded our Harvest Supper and Quilt Raffles and quilting classes. Heather is presently renting an apartment in Toronto awaiting a lung transplant. Her family would like to throw a benefit for her at our location. Val picked Saturday June 7th for this event. It is the only available Saturday in June.

Moved by Val Miller

Seconded by Barb Dickson

That the Recreation Committee Waived the rental fee of $225.00 for the Pickard family so they can hold a benefit dance in the Horton Community Centre for long time Horton Volunteer Heather Pickard who is awaiting a lung transplant in Toronto. Carried
