Statistics Canada conducting Surveys Locally

Statistics Canada has informed the OPP they will be conducting surveys in this area of the province from now until the end of September. Statistics Canada conducts many surveys with households and businesses across the country to ensure that all Canadians have access to information to better understand Canadian society-its population, resources, economy, and culture.

Confirming survey and interviewer legitimacy

Statistics Canada surveys are conducted in person, by telephone or online.

There are several ways for respondents to verify that a survey is being conducted by Statistics Canada:

- by looking up the name of the survey in the list of surveys in collection
- by verifying that the interviewer carries photo id issued by Statistics Canada
- by contacting Statistics Canada:
  - 1-800-263-1136 - Toll-free
  - 1-866-753-7083 - TTY
  - STATCAN.infostats-infostats.STATCAN@canada.ca

To accommodate respondents' schedules, interviewers work seven days a week, including evenings and weekends.

Thefts

A victim reported tools were stolen from his truck while he was out fishing for the day. He left his truck parked on Monday July 3 at the Baskin Road public boat launch in Arnprior. The tools were locked in the bed of the truck and when the victim returned at 5 pm he discovered the theft. There are no suspects at this time.
